Dan brings more than 20 years' experience to Brown & Brown and has an extensive background in self-funded employer plans and disease-management and wellness consulting. Prior to Brown & Brown, Dan was Vice President/Practice Leader of Employee Benefits at a regional brokerage. He began his career as a Sales Executive for a national insurance company, Great-West Healthcare, where he managed a large book of self-funded business.

Directly following Great-West, he worked for a large national brokerage focused on wellness programs and cost-containment solutions. He has a long history of helping clients achieve financial savings through innovative cost-containment and alternative-funding strategies, while also helping to improve the benefits programs and employee experience.

Dan earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Pepperdine University, where he was captain of the men's rowing team. He and his wife, Jessica, reside in Pleasanton, CA with their children, Danica and Liam.
