Mary began her insurance career with Brown & Brown in 1995, providing support to all group clients initially as a Client Service Representative. Mary continued to grow with the company and received numerous promotions to Account Manager, Account Executive, and ultimately Consultant.

Mary is strongly service oriented and uses her skills to provide clients with valued support in all areas, including, but not limited to, strategic direction, renewal evaluation and market analysis. Her decades of experience in varying roles and working with a diverse array of clients enables her to coordinate resources amongst a variety of disciplines and management within an organization.

Mary supports community service and conservancy-based non-profits, such as the Oakland Zoo and the Yosemite Conservancy. She is an avid fan Oakland Sports teams, including the Athletics and the relocated Golden State Warriors and Raiders. She earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in Human Development from California State University, Hayward. Mary resides in San Leandro with her husband, Mike, and their two children.
